

ABSTRACT:

A carbon black with organic groups in which the organic groups are linked to the black via a sulfide- and/or polysulfide bridge. Furthermore, a method of producing the black of the invention is described in which carbon black and compounds of the general formula $R-S_y-R$ are reacted. The carbon blacks of the invention can be used as filler, UV stabilizer, conductivity black and pigment.